

Call-Out for Artists/Facilitators

Our Work in Communities:

Absolutely Cultured currently runs cultural activities in Spring Bank and Gipsyville. From Gipsyville Library and our newly opened Creative Centre in Spring Bank, we are developing a series of regular multi-artform activities and events for local communities to take part in. Consultation and co-creation with the community is at the core.

What we're looking for:

We want to open up the pool of artists we work with in communities and are currently looking for a number of artists to facilitate 2-hour long Creative Workshop sessions. At the moment, Spring Bank sessions are held on Tuesday afternoons and Gipsyville's are held on Saturday mornings. As we're developing the programme, more sessions will be added over time.

The workshops can be in any art form you may specialise in. Some experience of running workshops and working collaboratively with communities is needed.

£150 per session, long-term and short-term contracts are available.

You can apply through video, audio or in writing to katie.atkins@absolutelycultured.co.uk.
